VOLUME CVII.-NO. 92.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 16, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers as teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach and bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of nature, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

To Remove Freckles & Pimples

In Ten Days, Use Nadinola

A new discovery, sold under a positive guarantee and money refunded in every case where it fails to remove freckles, pimples, liver spots, sun-burn, sallowness, collar discolorations, blackheads and all eruptions of the skin, no matter of how long standing. Cures ordinary cases in 10 days, and the worst in 20 days. After these defects are removed the skin will be clear, soft, healthy and beautiful. No poison, no harm, no redness, no itching. 50 cents and $1.00 at leading drug stores or by mail.

NATIONAL TOILET COMPANY, Paris, Tenn.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpetide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpetide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. In stamps for sample to The Herpetide Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Hope of the Primitive Church.

Rev. Walter Rhodes, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, of Baltimore, preached yesterday on "The Expectations of the Early Christians Concerning Return of Our Lord to Earth." In part he said:

Very few Christians today look for the return of our Lord to earth in the same sense that the early Christians did. Many believe that Christ will come again, but the doctrine is so little thought of today that it has but little influence in determining Christian character. The early Christians saw in the return of the Lord to earth the climax of their redemption, and based all their hopes and aims upon the promise of his return. Instead of flooding their teaching with death and the grave as an incentive to obedience, they continually preached about the translation of the church, the resurrection of Christ and the making alive again of those that were dead. Such themes as these inspired hope not only in themselves, but also in those to whom they taught, and a revival of this optimistic instruction is needed today, but only in proportion as the Christian personally has left the influence of it is doctrine in his life will his teaching be permeated with the doctrine.

The early Christians had definite views concerning the return of our Lord, while many today have only a vague idea as to the manner of his appearing. It is true that the early Christians were disappointed by not being permitted to live to see this advent of the Redeemer, yet from the way it had been revealed to them their faith was in no sense shocked, nor their testimony made false. Our Lord had constantly taught them to be watchful and expectant, but had likewise taught them not to despond or be impatient if he should not return immediately. The immediate followers of our Lord who witnessed his ascension into heaven no doubt expected him to immediately return, but as revelation was made to the apostles and the churches received their letters of instruction in doctrine, it gradually became evident, before the Scripture canon was closed, that God was working out a divine plan, consisting of great events, each of which must revolve as the stars of heaven, around the "Sun of Righteousness" until their circuit was complete, and when the last event had transpired then the Lord would return. These events have made great epochs in the world's history.

As the Christians of the first and second centuries looked back upon the past and forward to the future they could distinguish the beginning and end of several distinct dispensations. The first dispensation opened with a Paradise, with God blessing man; it closed with a catastrophe in the nature of a flood, with God repenting that he had made man. The second dispensation opened with God blessing Noah, the promise of the Messiah, which kindled the hopes of the Jews; it terminated with a catastrophe, marked by the Jews rejecting Jesus, and his death on the cross. The sun refused to shine, the earth quaked, the temple veil was rent, the lightning flashed and the thunders roared, and the dispensation closed with the cry of Christ on the cross, "It is finished." Then began the present dispensation; it opened with the resurrection of Christ, the opening of a door of grace to the gentiles and the formation of the church; it will close with the return of Christ to earth, and the translation of living, and the resurrection of the righteous dead. The fourth dispensation is the millennium; it will open with Christ setting up his kingdom on the earth and gradually subduing every enemy until death itself, the last enemy, is destroyed; it will close with a catastrophe.

Escaped in a Beer Barrel.

The story of how the Italian murderer, Michael de Lauro, fooled the minions of the law in Neptune township, near Asbury Park, N. J., and escaped from his pursuers in a beer barrel is the latest phase of the love tragedy of last summer, in which Frank Rozzo was the victim of a jealous rival's bullet. All the evidence at the time pointed to De Lauro as the murderer. Detectives and possees were sent in search of him, but the Italian dropped out of sight.

It appears from a statement obtained by one of the township officials, that De Lauro was on the night of the murder secretly by his countrymen. For seven days he was hid in the sand hills, being supplied with food and water. On the seventh day he was shoved into a barrel which was closed at the top. The barrel was loaded in a beer ark and taken to New York on the steamer Mary Fatten of the Pleasure Bay Line.

On arrival at the pier it was transported, with De Lauro inside to an outgoing Italian steamer, bound for Naples, and lowered into the hold. After the steamer had sailed outside of Sandy Hook, and was well on her trip, De Lauro was released by his unknown rescuers, and, as one of the steamer passengers, carried to his Italian home, where it is said he is now living apparently untroubled of the Monmouth county indictment, and in full security.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is better. It opens the bowels. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 402 King Street.

CORDIAL INVITATION

ADDRESSED TO WORKING GIRLS

Miss Barrows Tells How Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Helps Working Girls.

Girls who work are particularly susceptible to female disorders, especially those who are obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night in stores or factories.

Among this class the symptoms of female diseases are early manifest by weak and aching backs, pain in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach. In consequence of frequent wetting of the feet, periods become painful and irregular, and frequently there are faint and dizzy spells, with loss of appetite, until life is a burden. All these symptoms point to a derangement of the female organism which can be easily and promptly cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio, tells what this great medicine did for her. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and periods were irregular. I had been to several doctors, and they did me no good."
"Your medicine has made me well and strong. I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right."

"I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your remedies. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer."

It is to such girls that Mrs. Pinkham holds out a helping hand and extends a cordial invitation to correspond with her. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her long record of success in treating women's ills makes her letters of advice of untold value to every ailing working girl. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

An Acceptable Easter Egg.

Rev. Wilbur F. Sheridan, pastor of Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church in Baltimore, received an Easter token yesterday.

Mr. Edward Thompson, superintendent of the Sunday-school, called at the parsonage Saturday evening, and as he was leaving he handed Mr. Sheridan an Easter egg.

"Here's a little Easter present for you," he said, in a voice full of seriousness.

The egg was a little, ordinary-looking affair, such as may be seen in any store, but when it was opened its true worth was realized. The minister found three new, crisp $100 bills and a little note telling him that the present was from his friends.

A Young Mother of 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Stomach, Liver and Kidneys right, purifies the blood and cures Malaria, Biliousness and Weakness. Wonderful Nerve Tonic. Price 50c. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.
